DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the catch mechanism (cl.5), springs (cl.8), actuation means(cl.9), connecting element (cl.11), securing device (cl.13), fastening device (cl.16), gear (cl.17), cable (cl.19,21), and mounting assembly (cl.27) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 17-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Regarding claim 19, the phrase "or the like" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "or the like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Regarding claim 21, the phrase "some similar method" is indefinite.

Regarding claim 17, line 4, the term "possibly" is indefinite.

Claim Objections

5. Claims 13-21 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 13, line 1, recites "ding", which appears to be a typo.

Claim 17, line 2, "id" appears to be a typo.

Claim 19, line 2, recites the phrase "brake pads" twice.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Art Unit: 3618

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1, 2, 10-16, 22, 24, and 25-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fang (US 6,447,002 B1).

Fang discloses a collapsible transport comprising a platform 11, 12, with joints 121, a pair of wheels 13 on pivotal suspensions 132, a pivoting drawbar 23 with handle 22, securing device 2411, locking pin 1131, and fastening element 4, as shown in figures 1-7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 3-5, 7-9, 23, and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fang, as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Ritucci et al. (US 6,845,991 B1).

Art Unit: 3618

Fang does not disclose pivoting struts or panels. Ritucci et al. does disclose a folding cart comprising pivoting struts 42 that lock on to catch 45 on suspensions 49 and fold into area 44, as shown in figures 11-12. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the cart of Fang with the struts and panels of Ritucci et al. in order to prevent folding of the wheels and cargo from sliding off the platform.

With respect to claim 28, little patentable weight has been given to the type of material used unless it produces an unexpected result and therefore any material well-known in the art can be used to make the cart of Fang, including lightweight metal, in order to apply the benefits of the specific material used.

With respect to claim 8, the use of springs in order to bias folding components is well-known in the art and it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the cart of Fang and Ritucci et al. with springs in order to bias the folding platform in either the open or closed position.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claim 6 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

11. Claims 17-21 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
